HOROSCOPE

Aries

Mars is speeding things up, but not everything needs to happen right now. This autumn, the best things will happen when you stop planning them.

Taurus

The universe is giving you a green light for pleasure. Good food, long evenings, and decisions you don't have to explain to anyone.

Gemini

September and October bring plenty of conversations, unexpected encounters, and at least one plan that gets completely out of hand. Exactly as intended.

Cancer

Someone or something from the past may return. The stars suggest not opening old doors without something good in your glass.

Leo

The next two months belong to you. Expect looks, compliments, and situations where you somehow end up in the center of attention. Naturally.

Virgo

Not everything can be planned, scheduled, and controlled. September and October have a little experiment for you: just see what happens.

Libra

Venus is on your side. Expect flirting, beautiful things, and a few decisions best made after the second round.

Scorpio

Your time is coming. Magnetism is rising, secrets are multiplying, and one very bad idea may become your best memory of the season.

Sagittarius

This autumn, fate won't ask for permission. A spontaneous night out, a random encounter, or one "I'll only stay for a bit" could change the whole evening.

Capricorn

Work isn't going anywhere. September and October will remind you that not every good decision needs a goal, a plan, or a calendar invite.

Aquarius

The stars definitely don't want you to be predictable. Trust strange ideas, random conversations, and people you normally wouldn't meet.

Pisces

Your intuition will be stronger than usual. The only problem is that by late October, it may be hard to tell destiny from really good flirting.
